

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

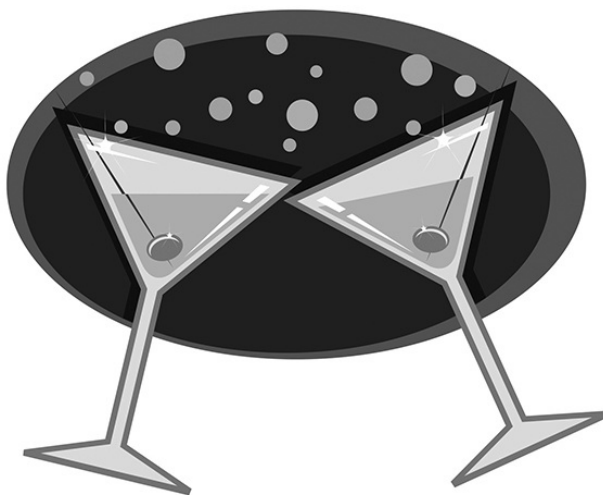

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Do you think men and women are equal? Why or why not?
- Which gender issue discussed in this lesson is the most important for you? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about people's behavior, personality, habits, and family life.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.
- I can compare two things or people and describe the quality of an object or a person.
- I can talk about what is necessary.

Let's Explore!

Sally and Vanessa chat about Sally's articles on gender issues.

* In this case, the word "issue" means a social problem.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Hi Sally!
- Sally: Hi Vanessa! Did you read my articles about gender issues in Cambridge Life?
- Vanessa: Yes, I'm reading the online version now. I've got to finish reading the last one.
- Sally: What do you think?
- Vanessa: Well, you bring up some interesting ideas. In my opinion, the most important issue you talk about is the wage gap.
- Sally: Everyone is going to have to work together if we want to solve this problem.
- Vanessa: You're right. I also liked the article about who talks more. I thought women were more social, but sometimes men are more outgoing.
- Sally: I learned a lot about the changing family, and how women with infants and toddlers are going back to work sooner than before.
- Vanessa: Yes, but eating habits in the family haven't changed that much.
- Sally: You're right. Women consistently spend more time in the kitchen than men.
- Vanessa: One day, that will change. It will be a sweet victory! What are you going to write about next?
- Sally: I'm not sure yet. I've got to think about it!

Let's Practice!

Vanessa and Sally review what they learned about gender issues.

Instructions: Match column A and column B.

COLUMN A

1. Eating habits in the family
2. Women consistently spend
3. I also liked this article
4. I thought women were more social,
5. Mothers with infants and toddlers.

COLUMN B

- a. about who talks more.
- b. more time in the kitchen than men.
- c. but sometimes men are more outgoing.
- d. are going back to work sooner.
- e. haven't changed that much.

Let's Practice!

Sally and Vanessa talk about the future.

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with the correct words or expressions: is going to have to work - I've got to finish - I've got to think

1. Sally: Did you read my article about gender issues?
Vanessa: _____ reading the last article.
2. Sally: Everyone _____ together if they want to solve that problem.
Vanessa: You are right.
3. Vanessa: What are you going to write about next.
Sally: _____ about it!

Extension Activity

Find out which gender issue the most important for people.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a list of the gender issues discussed in this lesson.
- Discuss the issues with 10 people.
- Ask each person to identify the 3 most important issues.
- Compile (count) the results of your survey.
- Present the results to the class.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I review the gender issues in this lesson.

☐
☐

I discuss gender issues with 10 people.

☐
☐

I survey opinions.

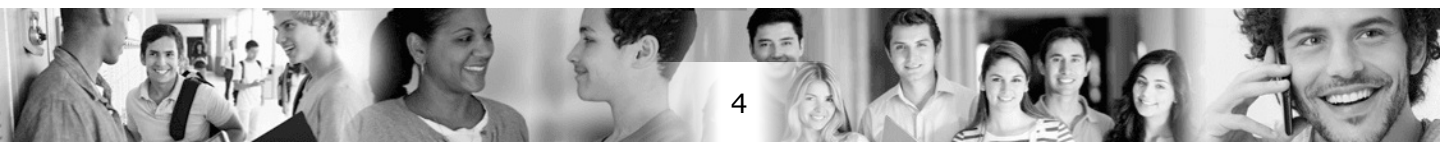

☐
☐

I present the results of the survey.

☐
☐

Target Words

- social (adjective): describes a person who enjoys talking to people e.g. I always thought women were more social.
- infant (noun): baby
e.g. I learned how women with infants are going back to work sooner than before.
- toddler (noun): a young child just learning to walk e.g. Mothers with toddlers are also going back to work.
- wage gap (noun): the difference in salary between two groups of people e.g. In my opinion, the most important issue you talk about is the wage gap.
- gender (noun): sex (male or female) e.g. Did you read my articles about gender issues in Cambridge Life?
- consistently (adverb): regularly; repeatedly; on a regular basis e.g. Women consistently spend more time in the kitchen than men.

Learning Points

Superlatives and Comparatives

You use comparative adjectives to compare yourself to another person.

You use superlative adjectives to compare yourself or something to a group of people.

Some adjectives change to different words in the comparative and superlative form.

With one-syllable words, you add -er to the adjective to make the comparative form. You add -est to the adjective to make the superlative form.

With words of two or more syllables, you add the word more before the adjective or adverb in the comparative form. You add the most before the adjective or the adverb in the superlative form.

Adjective or Adverb	Comparative	Superlative
good	better	the best
bad	worse	the worst
hard	harder	the hardest
soon	sooner	the soonest
social	more social	the most social outgoing	more outgoing	the most outgoing
accurately	most accurately	the most accurately

Examples:

- I thought women were more social, but sometimes men are more outgoing.
- Women with infants and toddlers are going back to work sooner than before.

Learning Points

Expressing What is Necessary

You can use certain expressions to talk about what is necessary to do in the future in order for something to happen.

- You have to ...
- You have got to ...
- I'm going to have to ...
- You need to ...

Examples:

- Vanessa: What are you going to write about next?
- Sally: I'm not sure yet. I've got to think about it!

